Every June, The Canadian Mountain Arts Foundation presents the annual artsPeak Arts Festival. Incorporating over 100 presenting artists, 60 plus volunteers, 50 plus presentations and 36 venues, artsPeak provides Canmore residents and visitors with a wide array of opportunities to explore, celebrate and be inspired by the arts. Artists are providing festival-goers with a weekend of song, film, street performance and numerous opportunities to explore the visual arts. In addition, there are two series of workshops to provide novice artists with the opportunity to receive hands-on instruction in several arts disciplines. Of particular note is that the vast majority of the activities presented are Free to the Public, including all of our workshops.

Beth Cairn's passions are downhill and backcountry skiing, mountain biking, hiking and the mountains. She expresses this through her art and passion for woodworking which she inherited from her Uncle, a master woodworker in Ste. Adele, Quebec. Each piece is drawn on a tableau of wood then the negative space removed using a rotary tool, a router to soften the edges and further details by hand. She then paints them with acrylic paint and frames each with solid fir.
